Ladies and Gentlemen.

One of the important directives of Newport Jazz Club is to highlight and support the young emerging Island Jazz Musicians, they are after all the significant part of furthering and continuing Jazz Music. Please support them.

This month we welcome two young bands to the concert viz. The Dominic Jones Quartet and The Pick-up 6.

From the age of 23 Dominic Jones has been playing sax. In his own words "Ever since I watched Lisa play her saxophone on the Simpsons". Since then he has gone on to study jazz at Chichester College and graduate with a jazz degree from Middlesex University. His influences include Bobby Wellins and Derek Nash.

Our youngest young talent yet is a 6 part ensemble "Pick-Up 6" led by Cameron Tarry. Aged 15-16 they will have just completed their GCSE's! They met at around 11 years old and bonded over a love of music and all joined the school jazz band in year 8. Currently they are part of The Island Free School Senior Jazz Band with a repertoire ranging from early Dixieland jazz right up to this years' pop songs.

Future Concerts

Sun. 14th July: Louise Parker & her trio.

Louise is a celebrated Jazz and Blues singer.

Sun. 18th August: Trad Jazz with Roger Mark's Cornish Jazz Band.

Next Apollo Production:

Every Christmas Story Ever Told and Then Some!

Rather than performing Charles Dickens' beloved holiday classic for the umpteenth time, three actors decide to perform every Christmas story ever told – plus Christmas traditions from around the world, seasonal icons from ancient times to topical pop-culture and every carol ever sung. A fast-paced romp through the festive season. If you liked 'The Reduced Shakespeare' you'll love this!

5–6 and 9-13 July
